

Parents,

Periodically, we will be submitting articles and pictures to neighborhood newspapers, as well as to the Open Arms website. To stay in cooperation with the Georgia Department of Human Resources' rules and regulations, we ask each parent to please complete the following Permission for Publication of student's photographs and work and return it as soon as possible.

*Thank you,
Dara B. Liberatore
Executive Director*

Permission for Publication

Open Arms Buckhead maintains a website and/or Facebook page. The site(s) is a means for communicating information and advertising. From time-to-time, Open Arms Buckhead may wish to publish examples of student projects, photographs of students, and other work on its website and/or Facebook pages for these reasons. The website is a chance for students to have their work published and shared worldwide. This is a great way for out-of-town friends and relatives to keep in touch with the events at Open Arms Buckhead and have a means to view and enjoy student work.

All student pictures and work published will be anonymous, or only the student's first name will be used to maintain privacy for that child. Parents will also be notified when their child's work or picture is published on the website through normal channels of communication.

Yes No My child/children's photograph and work can be published on the Open Arms Buckhead website.

Yes No A photograph including my child/children may be included in the school's brochure.

Yes No My child/children's photograph can be published in the local magazine/newspaper.
